

Mrs. Annie Mae Brown

May 29, 1932 - May 4, 2018

Annie Mae Brown (85) of Waldorf, MD

Annie Mae Sellers Brown was born May 29, 1932 in Santee, South Carolina to the late Samuel Sellers and Viola Hilliard Sellers.

She was baptized at an early age and was a member of Providence Baptist Church in South Carolina. She later became a member of Galilee Baptist Church located in Suitland, Maryland.

She was married to the late Morris Brown; to this union seven children were born.

She worked various jobs but her heart landed her in childcare raising grandchildren and neighborhood kids. She loved family gatherings, dancing, and singing and was always the highlight of any gathering. She was fun and loving and anytime she was around, you could count on laughter and a good time and possibly her famous macaroni and cheese. We all looked forward to the holidays because we knew we were going to receive her "Signature Sweet Potato Pie." Umm Umm Good!

Her legacy that she leaves with her family is her love for Jesus Christ! She always had an encouraging word or filled a room with joy regardless of what situation or circumstances she found herself in. She will truly be remembered for her smile that was warm and welcoming as well as her embrace with a kiss.

She leaves to cherish her memory, daughters Joanne Hancock, and Celane

“ To the family, sorry I will not be able to join you during this difficult time. But know that you are in my prayers. I have fond memories of Mrs. Annie Mae when she lived in Temple Hills back in the 80's. Even though she was my Uncle Jimmy mother in law, she was like a grandmother to me. It was never a dull moment when you got around her. I will continue to keep the family in my prayers. Ronnie Coley.
