Gone But Never Forgotten

Mom, through the good and bad times, you continued to share your love with us all. There were days when you tried to understand why certain things happened that caused you pain. Some of us knew the cause why you were hurting. We did our best surrounding you with the best care to comfort you. Even now, your loving family, friends, and all that are present surround you with much love. In the presence of God, the comfort and peace that you now have, we truly believe you are happy and have no more pain.

You will always be the loving, caring and understanding mother to us. We will truly miss you mom and as you said to me before you left to be with God, "I LOVE YOU!"

“ Ida was a sweet women, I remember her as mom first then a hairdresser. She always had a nice set up downstairs and did hair in Birchwood City. She has a nice big family and I had lots of fond memories of her growing up. She was always so welcoming to me. It was a blessing to know you and may you be at peace with your husband. Sending love to you and your family.
