JAMES C. WARR

"Let Your Kingdom Come, Let Your Will Take Place, As in Heaven,
Also Earth" Matthew 6:10

On August 8, 1942 Nathaniel Warr and Rosella Nixon was blessed with a son, James Clifford Warr. He was born in Kentucky. As a young child the family moved to Detroit, Michigan, where he attended Detroit's Public Schools, until he graduated and enlisted in the United States Army, E 1 Rifleman. Serving his country during the Vietnam War and Honorably discharged and receiving The Purple Heart in 1964 due to injuries sustained in the War. James continued to serve as a United States for the next 17 years until his health prevented him from doing so. James lived his life on his own terms. He loved all kinds of animals, but especially dogs. He always enjoyed family gatherings and reunions with nicknames for everyone and jokes for days. He was known for his snow-white hair, white T- shirts, wrangler jeans and cowboy boots. He will be Loved and Missed, but not Forgotten. Fighting several health concerns and covid-19 our dear Sonny gained his wings, your fight is over well done. James is proceeded in death by his sisters; Telela Reed (Tee), Franzetta Riley (Fran), Vanessa Warr (Nesse), Brother-in-Laws Stuart Dean and CJ Wren, Stepmother Pauline Warr. Sonny leaves to celebrate his life and keep his memories going; Son Andre Warr Sr. 4 grandchildren; Andre Warr Jr.,

D'Andre' Warr, Tyshia Warr, Josay Felder, 4 great grandchildren; Andre Warr 3rd, Terela Warr and Quinton Williams, Sisters; Lenora Gregory (Kenny), LaVada Dean, Margret Wren and Cheryl Harris. A host of nieces, nephews and other relatives and friends.

My dearest uncle Sonny, I will always cherish our talks and laughter. My mother asked me to take care of you, and sometimes I think you took care of me. Let us just say we took care of each other, now you are free and resting with your sister Tee whom I miss dearly. I will miss you calling me asking for SNACKS and Making JOKES, but I will forever keep you close to my HEART! We Love you!!! Unk!

“ My dear sweet boy,

I was deeply saddened to hear of your passing and more heartbroken that I could not be there to see you one last time and let you know how very much you were loved. I raised you as if you were my own and that is truly how I felt. You were my only son. God, knows best and now you have no more pain. You are with your sister's. Please hug and kiss them for me and let them know that I think of them all every single day. Take care of them and when God calls me to rest I will see you all. Until then, I will hold you in my heart, my thoughts, and my prayers.

Love,

Mama Margaret

“ Little Sonny is the name I knew growing up. Wearing the big bush, your white tshirt with the sleeves rolled-up, your wrangler jeans with the big cuff at bottom, and cowboy boots. We heard you coming from the sound of all the keys you carried. Cousin, you can now rest your soul and spread your wings amongst the other family members who has gone on before you. May you sleep in peace.

*Lots of love
