“ While I did not know Lisa as much as others, I always looked forward to seeing her everyday greeting me with that big smile. She was a pleasant soul, and may she rest in peace and power. Prayers to the Smith family during this time.

“ I haven't know Lisa for very long but getting to know her was incredible. discovering new things about her every time I talked to her like the music that she loved and poetry made a huge connection with me because my appreciation for the arts. She challenged me in so many ways that has in such a short time made me a much better person. She was so different from anyone I have ever met. It is unbelievable to me that she is gone. I am still struggling to cope with this. I have been continually praying for the family. I truly loved Lisa.

“ To the Smith’s Family,

I’m so saddened to hear of the news that God called her home. But I know she’s looking down from heaven. I think back in 2005 when Lisa and I first met. She said I was her knight in shining armor. I thank God for our time together. I’m sending my condolences to the entire Smith’s Family. Lisa was a very eccentric, beautiful and lovely lady. We could always converse about anything and found ourselves on common ground. I will always think of her when I come across anything involving the Color Purple. Next, she always love Nina Simone! Lisa will truly be missed.

“ It was truly a blessing and a privilege to have known Ms. Lisa!!! She was a beautiful woman, inside and out, and her living spirit would always prove to be contagious whenever you were in her company. I had not see you in years, but I'm certain you were still as beautiful and as genuine as I remember. You will truly be missed. I extend my deepest condolences and sympathies to Kevin and the family. Let your light shine bright up there...until we meet again.
