

Squanda Yolanda Thomas

November 28, 1991 - March 7, 2021

Let us celebrate the life of our beloved Squanda Yolanda Thomas, 29 of Washington, DC who transitioned to her heavenly home on Sunday, March 7, 2021. She was born on Thursday, November 28, 1991 to her very proud father, the late William Q. Terry III. She was preceded in death by her grandmother Patricia Thomas and uncle Charles Hagler.

She leaves to cherish her memory, a loving mother Eunice Elizabeth Marshall, grandmother Linda McSwain, grandfather William Q. Terry Jr. She is also survived by siblings Quinetta (Que), Elisha, Chrishawna, Charles Thomas, Annastia Marshall, three aunts Sharica Brown, Marsha and Yolanda Hagler, three uncles Jerome and Sean Terry, Donald Austin, fiance Will Brox and special friend Corey Butler for over 9 yrs, five nieces Nevaeh, Camilla, Hazel, Aaliyah, Amiyah, one nephew Cahliil, four cousins Rico, Brittany, Diego, Dakota and host of other relatives and friends. Squanda received her education through the Washington, D.C. public school system.

Before her departure she worked as a licensed Special Police Officer for Watkins Security Company. Squanda's favorite pastime was interacting with her family either over the telephone or in person. She loved being an aunt to all her nieces and nephew as well as a motherly figure to her sisters. In her spare time, she loved taking pictures and videos of family and friends.

Aside from spending time with her family and friends, Squanda had a passion for spending time with her grandmother “NaNa”, cooking, singing, dancing, shopping, doing hair and make-up and making videos. In her spare time, she enjoyed caring for her dogs Princess and Bella. She touched many lives with her generosity and passion for life.
