“ From Texas, America. The last concert I saw here was in Austin. A long, hot day.

John spoke up in between songs and said: "Every year we say "See you next time, but you never know if there will be a next time". Know that there are people across this world in mourning, include myself, tears falling. I only met Tony once, before we lost John, bjt I hoped to see him again. Love to the family, and Tony. Thanks for the soundtrack of my life..
