

Tyrone Weaver

November 21, 1965 - July 7, 2022

On July 7, 2022 our beloved brother Tyrone Weaver departed this life for eternal rest.

He is the son of the late Pearl Weaver and Howard "Sonny" Weaver. He leaves behind a sister; Beverly Weaver and two brothers, Steven Weaver and Emanuel Robinson. And also a close "little brother" cousin Jeffrey Holmes.

He also was the baby brother of the late Carolyn "Patsy" Willis. He leaves behind a loving nephew, Jamal Weaver, along with Jamal's family. He loved the new addition to our family, Zuri Weaver he nick-named her "Buttercup," one niece, Renee Young, one great-niece, Mya Young and her son Milton Young. Along with a host of family and friends.

Tyrone grew up in Washington, DC and attended McKinley High School and received a bachelors from George Mason University where Tyrone made many long lasting friendships.

Tyrone worked at the Department of Interior, Bureau of Land Management (BLM) over 30 years. He had recently retired from government service. He was a procurement specialist. He also worked part-time for years a video store and Tschiffely's Pharmacy. Tyrone was a people-person, he loved to travel; he took luxury trips and trips with his job at BLM.

Tyrone was an avid gardener. He enjoyed planting lilies, hibiscus, butterfly bushes, etc. And neighbors and people stopped to admire his front yard. What a green thumb. And he was the cook among cooks in the family; who kept the holiday traditions in the family going

“ I met Tyrone while he was a BLM employee, first on L Street and then on M Street. There are not words to express what a great guy he was, as a coworker, a get-it-done person, a great man, and sometimes as shoulder. Similarly, words aren't good enough to express my sadness at his passing. The world has lost a good man, but the world was better to have had Tyrone in it.

“ I worked with Tyrone at M Street for the BLM. He was the sweetest, gentlest person. Whenever I was told to refer to Tyrone for help, I knew I would walk away calmer and happier with my work issues. He was also really good at his work. I loved that he had evening prayer meetings with my other colleagues every evening before we left for home after work. We also talked about recipes, especially when he had just bought a pressure cooker. He always made me feel more welcome at my job and helped me feel like we were all a team. I am so sad for his passing. I really have enjoyed the Celebration of Life. Thank you.

“ I met Tyrone in 2012 when I was transferred from the Main Interior to 20 M Street. Tyrone wore a cologne that smelled so good. I knew when he was in the cubicle next to mine. I was given the opportunity to work on the Web page for BLM, and Tyrone came to me and said if I needed help with anything don't hesitate to ask him. Tyrone, thank you for all the training you gave me. I will miss you Tyrone... you've earned your wings, fly away Tyrone, fly away. My sincere condolences to you and your family.

“ I met Ty during his years at GMU along with a wonderful group of men and women that have remained friends since.

Remaining family forever, we'd laugh ourselves silly playing board or card games at my home while eating and sharing libations.

Thank you for being such an impact in my life Ty, you will truly be missed.
