

Varonica Lake Minor

November 24, 1957 - July 11, 2022

Varonica Lake Fair Minor, the daughter of the late Alex Fair Sr. and Virginia Thompson

Fair, began her earthly journey on November 24, 1957, in Kershaw, South Carolina. She departed this life on Monday, July 11, 2022 at Inova Hospital in Alexandria, Virginia.

Varonica loved and accepted Christ at an early age, and joined Second Calvary Baptist Church in Heath Springs, SC. Later in life, she attended the Community Church of God in Arlington, VA.

Ronnie, as she was affectionately called, was educated in the Lancaster County School System and graduated from Andrew Jackson High School in 1975. She attended Atlanta Medical & Dental Technical College and graduated with a certification in Medical Assistance. She also graduated from the University of South Carolina with an associate degree in Early Childhood Education. After years of working at various home healthcare agencies as a Certified Nursing Assistant, she retired.

She was united in matrimony to Rodolphus A. Minor Jr. on July 21, 2007.

They initially met in 1991 at Fort McNair, and they have been together ever since. She enjoyed spending time with her friends and family. Her greatest passion was taking care of others. Veronica was loved by many. She wrote, "The message of my life is to share with others that if you believe in the gospel, you can achieve whatever you're trying to do in life, and I believe that God will let me be cancer free soon."

She leaves to cherish these and other memories her husband, Rodolphus "Rudy" of Arlington, VA; a son, Chivas Minor of Atlanta, GA; a daughter, Cenita Minor of Baltimore, MD; 4 grandchildren of Baltimore, MD; a mother-in-love Mrs. Pearl Minor Perry of Washington, DC, and 4 sisters-in-love; a brother, Boisey T. Fair of Kershaw, SC; a special brother, Roosevelt Izzard of Washington, DC; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.
